Bartholomew, the first to emigrate to America on 7 Jul 1684, was born on August 24, 1665 in Albury, Srrey [Surrey] County, England to George and Joan Stoffold. His birth was recorded four times in the Quaker Records of Guildfor with two different dates, as Bartholomew Stowell. He was baptized at the age of 18 on November 11, 1683, in the Espiscopal Church (Church of St Peter and St. Paul) at Albury. He may have done this in order to emigrate since Quaker and other non Espiscopal religions were not held in the same regard as the members of the Church of England. On July 7, 1684, at the age of 21, he signed an indenture document to serve John Bright; Merchant of London for 4 years on arrival in the Colonies. He boarded the GOOTH and signed documents presented by the ship's master; Peter Pagan and witnessed by Joseph Pycraft. In April 1690, Richard Kennon received land from the Henrico Co. Court, Virginia as payment for bringing in emigrants to the Colonies. One of the names on Kennon's list is Bart. Stowell (1684). [Fom the Stovall Society]

!"Stovall Family in America" by Smith: Bartholomew, age 21, arrived in Virginia in late 1684on the ship BOOTH, Captain Peter PAGAN, Master. Bartholomew had, on July 7, 1684, signed with his mark an indenture to John BRIGHT, a merchant, for a term of four years as payment of his passage. On Aug 16, 1715, Bartholomew received 318 acres of land by patent in Henrico Co., Va, at the confluence of Deep Creek and the south side of the James River, near Powhatan, VA, about 30 miles west of Richmond.

Baptised: Nov 11, 1683, Baptised Albury, England prior to his trip to America. He was the first Stovall immigrant to come to America. Bartholomew was a Quaker. He could not write Bartholomew

STOVALL was married twice The name of his first wife is unknown, but apparently he had a daughter by her, Hager
STOVALL, who is mentioned in an estate settlement.

His will is listed in the Henrico Co., VA misc. court records, 1650-1807, Vol. 2, and probated 1 May 1721. He willed land along the James River to his sons George, William, Thomas, daughter Hannah, and wife, Ann.
