

Birth:

1716, Germany

Death:

Mar. 26, 1788

Glyde

Washington County

Pennsylvania, USA

Son of, Johan Nickel Simon.

Husband of, Maria Elisabetha Diehl.

Father of, Johan Michael, Liese (Elisabeth), Anjelica (Agnes), Catherine, Andrew, Margaret, Jacob, Adam, Anna Maria (Mary), and Nicholas Simon.

Served in the Revolutionary War.

First Recorded burial in what was then The Dutch Glory Church Cemetery.

Buried on what was Called Blackberry in the Land Patents.

Blackberry was sold to the German Lutheran Trustees for $ 1.00 and Goodwill by his son Michael, for the purpose of establishing a church and Cemetery.

Tombstone Inscription in German:

Adam Simon Ward gebohren 1716, und ist begrawen den 28, Marz 1788.

 Spouse:

 Maria Elisabetha Diehl Simon (1715 - 1806)

 Children:

 Michael Simon (1741 - 1839)

 Andrew Simon (1751 - 1828)

 Nicholas Simon (1761 - 1834)

Burial:

Bethlehem Lutheran Cemetery, Glyde, Washington Co, Pennsylvania