

CATY KIMBRO MARRIED JOSEPH NOE - WHICH ONE???

Every NOE researcher that I know says that Caty KIMBRO married Joseph NOE, the son of Peter, the immigrant. &nbsp;Of those who have a source it all seems to be the same one. &nbsp;Here is the source.

Catherine KIMBRO married a Joseph NOE, but not the Joseph that was the son of Peter the immigrant as everyone says. &nbsp;It is established that Joseph (son of Peter) married a Caty. &nbsp;It is also established that Joseph, Jr (son of above Joseph) married a Caty. &nbsp;Caty (MOSER) KIMBRO could not have been born much before 1750. The actual estimates by Moser researchers in 1760. &nbsp;Land records show Joseph (Sr) married to a Caty in 1771. &nbsp;The estimated date of birth of Joseph's and Caty's oldest son is 1765. &nbsp;Caty KIMBRO could probably not have had a child before that time and certainly not had a child Caty who was married to Joseph NOE.

Powell KIMBRO died before 1799. &nbsp;His wife was Katherine (Caty) MOSER.

This is established by the will of Frederick MOSER, SR dated &nbsp;1799 which named Caty, widow of Powell Kimbro as his daughter. &nbsp;I know of no recorded date of birth for either Powell or Caty, his wife. &nbsp;However the marriage of Caty (Moser) Kimbro's parents is recorded as 22 Apt 1750.

The above land record does not say which Joseph NOE. &nbsp;If you are a historian maybe you can explain the phrase "..all of the County of Orange, NC..".

&nbsp;Does that mean that they lived there at the time? &nbsp;Joseph NOE son of Peter and Joseph Jr, son of Joseph were both living in TN at that time. Are we looking at another Joseph NOE? &nbsp;Could he be a son of John NOE and Catherine EFLAND?
As far as I know, no one has found any children for this couple.
