

The Golden Age

Livingston, Tennessee Wednesday February 23, 1916

Mrs. Lee MOLES, living near Okalona Church dies very suddenly last Sunday. She had been in feeble health for several years. The family went away to church and left her alone, and when they returned found her speechless. She died shortly after. She was the daughter of Rev. Hillary COPELAND of this place, and leaves a husband and several children.