 Elizabeth b. 1827, d. 1905
 Sylvia b. 1864, d. 1882 [compiler: 1881]

[In the final settlement of the estate of Andrew and Elizabeth, son George Bell itemized the following charge:

"Mr. BARWICK: headstone for father, mother & sister Sylvia $110.00"

Since the tombstone was erected sometime after Elizabeth's death in 1905, the family erred regarding the actual year of death of both Andrew and Sylvia, but knew correctly that the father died 10 years after the daughter.]

On 29 Apr 1854 Elias SIMON purchased the 120 acre farm near Bairdstown in Bloom Twp which his brother Jonas SIMON left to his siblings upon his death in 1854. Elias paid the other 4 heirs $192 each. The youngest brother Carolus was not included in the transactions, perhaps because he was still a minor. Elias lived on the farm all his married life and built a beautiful brick home for Margaret. The farm and homestead are still owned by Elias' descendants.
