- <sup>1</sup> Possible age and birth date extrapolated from date of marriage and other known facts. Since Johann Nicholas was not listed as a passenger on ship lists arriving in Philadelphia ca. 1748, he was probably under the age of 16 when he immigrated. He was naturalized in 1769. Also, although women could be married as young as 15, men did not generally marry until they passed the age of 21.

Couldn't get in the cemetery as briars, brambles and brush were so dense that you couldn't even open the gate... Another TURNER descendant who lives in Rockingham County sent me the names, etc. of everyone buried in the cemetery. They had cleaned the plot and fenced it ca. 15 years ago... The area of Rockingham County where James and Christena settled and reared their family is west of Broadway, very close to Cootes Store and Fulks Run - in an area called Dry Run. Very mountainous.
