

Ryland Roberts lived in Randolph Co. North Carolina near William R. and Sarah (Stovall) Roberts. He witnessed the sale of the property of William R. Roberts after his death. William died intestate and his son James was executor of the estate. Sometimes Ryland signed his name as Jurat.

All the children of William and Sarah were named in an Equity Court Case in North Carolina. It is possible that Ryland could be the William Roberts, Jr that is listed.

When Ryland and Susannah Roberts married Haman Miller was the bondsman. Haman was also the husband of Frances Roberts who was the daughter of William and Sarah.
