Thomas Rinehart and his family were part of the general German immigration and migration to/in the early United States. It is not presently known who Thomas' parents were, although various authors have listed early German immigrants. The family were undoubtedly German Palatinates, or persons who came across the ocean from the Palatine section of Germany / France to avoid religious persecution.

Thomas is known to have lived in Berks Co., PA and in Frederick / Middletown, MD. Both of these areas were known as German Palatinate enclaves, and the Rineharts seem to have been part of this. Their migration within the United States was also typical. Come initially to PA, later go to the central MD area, then migrate westward. In the case of Thomas and his family, this meant going to Washington Co., MD from Frederick, then Preston Co., VA / WV, then to various westward ports in PA and OH, then all across the United States.

PIONEER CEMETERY Aurora, [Preston Co.]
WV:

This cemetery was evidently used by the earliest residents of the Aurora area. It is presently located on a high knoll about 1/4 mile behind the barn on the farm of Dale Stemple. His farm is at the end of the dirt lane which is across the paved road from the present Aurora Cemetery and Church. The Pioneer Cemetery is a square area about 100 by 100 feet. All the older stones have either been broken off at the base or were just temporary stones of a soft type. Only several rows of stone "stubs" exist, with a few pieces of slab laying nearby. One slab has several indentifiable letters. The only existing stones that are legible are several newer ones. They read as follows, left to right, when looking away from the barn.

1. WORTING John 1846 - 1924
Joseph 1859 - 1935

2. Pioneer Cemetery. This monument is dedicated to the early settlers buried here about 1787 - 1845. Presented by Jay F. Stemple 1974.

THOMAS RINEHART (1741 - 1834)

The last three stones were placed by the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Note: The death year on the stone of our Thomas Rinehart is undoubtedly wrong, as he appeared before a Justice of the Peace in June 1833 to apply for a pension. Since the pension was not allotted in 1835, he must have died in 1834. His will and/or estate record does not exist, probably due to the courthouse fire some years later.

THE STORY OF A GERMAN PIONEER IN AMERICA

by: Paul Damon

Thomas Rinehart tells us he was born on July 19, 1741, in or near Reading, Pennsylvania. Of this, we have no proof except his affidavit when he applied for a pension as a Revolutionary War Veteran. However, it probably is true. Unfortunately, it does not help us find the identity of his parents, since there is no obvious records of any Rinehard family living in that neighborhood earlier than about 1750. There were,.....
