Services Held For Mrs. Verna McClain Saturday Afternoon

Funeral services for Mrs. Verna McClain, 84, lifelong resident of Barry, were held Saturday afternoon, May 8, 1965, at 2:00 o'clock in the Lock Funeral Home, in charge of Dr. Robert Byler. Miss Opal Tillman provided organ music.

Interment was in Park Lawn Cemetery. Serving as casket-bearers were Kenneth Syrcle, Harry Uppinghouse, Glenn Coultas, William Wendorff, Ernest Blackorby and Tom Lock.

Mrs. McClain passed away Tuesday evening, May 4, in Illini Hospital, where she had been a patient for two days.

Born at Barry October 10, 1881, she was the daughter of William H. and Anna Horner Hall. She attended Barry schools; and on October 8, 1903, was married to G. M. McClain of Barry. He passed away five years ago.

Mrs. McClain is survived by one niece, Mrs. Walter Thompson of San Diego, California, who flew here for the services.

Three sisters and one brother preceded Mrs. McClain in death.
