

Nell Simmons

FORT WORTH — Nell Simmons, 83, a homemaker, died Sunday, April 20, 1997, in Benbrook.

Funeral: 3:30 p.m. Tuesday at Greenwood Funeral Home. Burial: Greenwood Memorial Park.

Nell Simmons was born Dec. 22, 1913, in Frederick, Okla., and moved to Tarrant County at a young age. She was a homemaker, a loving wife, mother and grandmother.

She was a longtime member of Lake Arlington Baptist Church and served as president of the Thirty-niners Senior Adults for 15 years.

She was married to O.L. Simmons for 63 years until his death in March 1996.

Survivors: Son, Ted Simmons and his wife, Donna, of Colorado Springs, Colo.; daughters, Jackie Rowley and her husband, George, of Fort Worth, Peggy Wilson and her husband, Bilson, of Austin and Carroll Beams and her husband, Ronnie, of Benbrook; sister, Mary Dunn of Corpus Christi; 12 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Greenwood Funeral Home
3100 White Settlement Road, 336-0584